WHITE CAPS BIND WOMAN
Tie Her to Chair Following Warning, Destroy Her Photograph and Marriage License.

Bellefontaine, O., Dec. 28.—Guy Strickland of Harper, recently married, claims that three men entered his home and bound his wife to a chair while they destroyed her photograph and the marriage license, which was framed. Mrs. Strickland freed herself and ran from the house but has since been unable to tell who tied her. Strickland says he knows his wife's assailants and will cause arrests. Strickland states he got a "white cap" warning December 13 that something would happen to him on the 26th, but he paid no attention to it.

TWO DIE AS YACHT SMASHES Man and Wife in Quest of Pirate Gold Meet Death in Sea When Boat Goes to Pieces.

Key West, Fla., Dec. 28.—The fatal voyage of the little yacht "Lehrn," which went to pieces against the rocks near Key West, was on an expedition in search of pirate gold. The organizer of the expedition was Mrs.
Marie Lott Bennett, the first woman to take out a skipper's license in Philadelphia. The thrilling story told by Herman Parker, who was miraculously saved after he was given up for lost, confirmed the apprehension that the brave woman had met death in the sea. The body of her husband, Captain Stuart Bennett, was found near Western banks.

GOTCH TO RE-ENTER THE RING World's Champion Wrestler Comes Out of Retirement and Issues Sweeping Challenge.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 28.—Frank Gotch, champion wrestler of the world, who retired from the mat after defeating Hackenschmidt, the Russian lion, has decided to re-enter the ring and, through Farmer Burns of Omaha, his trainer, issued a challenge to any man in the world. Hackenschmidt preferred, for a $20,000 side bet, the winner to take the entire wrestler's share of the gate receipts and the purse.
Burns backed his statement by depositing $500 with an Omaha newspaper.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

—Damascus high school is to be made first grade.

—S. Nelgh, aged 91, oldest resident of Leetonia, is seriously ill.

—East Palestine mill dealers must pay a license to peddle and have boosted the price to 8c a quart.

—Frank Henry of Meander had the end of one finger torn off, the other day in a Mineral Ridge factory.

—H. M. Eaholtz and wife, both lifelong residents of Lisbon, celebrated their golden wedding Christmas.

—J. R. Dorrance, aged 66, long a leading business man of Lisbon, died last Saturday night while at work in his store.

—Annual meeting of the Leetonia Mennonite Sunday school will be held Saturday morning and afternoon. A fine program has been prepared.

—John Baker, a miner employed at Salineville, was crushed to death last Saturday by a fall of slate. He was 58 years old and leaves his wife and an adopted son.

—Mrs. Mary Mackintosh died Tuesday ather home in Damascus, aged 82 years. She was an excellent woman and had many friends. She is survived by five children, John and Lida at home, Mrs. Theo Stanley of Damascus, D. H. Mackintosh of East Palestine and S. E. Mackintosh of Salem. Funeral services Thursday morning were conducted by Rev. W.
L. Swan, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a member, and burial was in Grandview cemetery, Salem.

—Some days ago the point was raised as to the right day to observe as Mr. McKinley's birthday. It was stated that a change had been made in the "Congressional Directory," and it was not known whether he had authorized it. Now comes his former private secretary, James Boyle, late consul at Liverpool, and tells how he wrote a campaign line of Major Mc-Kinley and verified the natal day from the family bible at his Canton home, when his mother was yet living. So January 29 will stand as the right date.

—Many subscriptions to the Dispatch expire the coming week and we trust our army of friends will promptly attend to renewing. We shall strive harder than ever the coming year to make the paper rank with the best county newspapers.

One thing is assured that will be kept clean so that it may be read in a family circle without fear of offending. We believe that is the kind of local newspaper the great majority of our patrons are pleased to pay for.
Those who prefer a sensational sheet must subscribe elsewhere.

—Louisville Herald: Rural mail route patrons should not impose upon the good nature of the carriers. Penalties scattered around in the mail boxes, for postage stamps, or asking the carriers to make change these cold mornings are nuisances almost unbearable. Imagine yourself one of the carriers with cold hands and obliged to remove your gloves in order to pick up the pennies which may be frozen to the bottom of the box, and you may possibly not ask them to do it any more. Keep a supply of stamps on hand. Don't place a quarter in the box for the purchase of one stamp and expect the carrier to make the change.

County Office Terms.
The terms of all county officers are now two years, with the exception of probate judge, whose term is four years. The terms of officers begin a follows: Auditor, the third Monday in October; Recorder, the first Monday in September; Sheriff, the first Monday in January; Treasurer, the first Monday in September; Surveyor, the first Monday in September; Clerk of Courts, the first Monday in August; Probate Judge, the ninth of February; Infermary Directors, the first Monday in January; Commissioners, the first Monday in October; Prosecuting Attorney, the first Monday in January.

Overdoing it.
Some people think so earnestly of the rainy day that they never see the sun shine.

WE wish you all a Happy New Year and promise to give all patrons our best efforts in general merchandising the coming twelve months.

Do You Know When to Sell Your Products?

CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER'S Regular Daily Morning Market Edition at One Year $3.00 Six Months $2.00 Three Months $1.00 One Month 45c will supply this much needed information and at the same time keep you in touch with the general news of the whole world as no other medium can.

The Plain Dealer's Morning Edition is today's paper—not a "warmed over" copy of yesterday's afternoon edition with nothing new but the date line, such as certain other Cleveland papers send to their country readers and call a morning edition, but the same paper goes to city customers with the full telegraphic news facilities of three front news-writing associations—The Associated Press, New York World and the International News Service. In addition to these remarkable complete facilities the Plain Dealer maintains regular staff correspondents in Washington, New York and Columbus.

The Plain Dealer prints the best news and the best features, and prints them first. Its editorial policy is distinguished in its honest and straightforwardness.

The market news of the Plain Dealer is compiled daily by a recognized authority on prices, who has made the product market at once his study and occupation for 17 years.
